

The Regina Howerton Memorial Scholarship
Scholarship Application

Due April 05, 2024, by mail to:

The Regina Howerton Memorial Scholarship
688 Felicity Higginsport Road Felicity, Ohio 45120
513-543-4366 or christinemfetters@gmail.com

The requirements are as follows:

- Application must be complete and legible. Applications must be written in blue or black ink and will only be excepted if they are complete and legible.
- Essay question responses must be typed on a separate sheet of paper.
- Applicant must have been a Clermont or Brown County Junior Fair Livestock Exhibitor prior to 2021 as well as a current exhibitor for the 2024 show year. (Livestock includes cattle, swine, goats, lambs, rabbits, and chickens).
- Applicant must be a senior in high school due to graduate in May of 2024.
- Check will be issued to the college or university of the recipient's choice.
- Scholarship will only be awarded to once recipient at a time.

Name _____ Male ___ Female ___

Home Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Phone Number (____) _____ Date of Birth _____

Email Address _____

Name of Parents or Guardians _____

High School _____

College or University after Graduation _____

What career do you plan to pursue? _____

On another piece of paper, number and answer the following questions.

1. List the years you have participated in the Junior Fair Livestock shows.
2. List each project you have taken by year, including 2024.

Essay: In 1500 words or less, answer all questions on a separate piece of paper either typed or written.

1. How have you benefited from the Junior Fair Livestock Program?
2. Think of 5 words to describe your project/projects. Rank them 1-5 with 1 being your most favorite part/ experience and 5 being your least favorite part/ experience and why.
3. The Junior Fair Livestock Program does not have a motto. If you were tasked with creating a motto, what would your motto be and why?