

Brown County 4-H Shooting Sports
Code of Conduct

As a participant you have the responsibility of representing the Brown County 4-H Program to the public so you are expected to conduct yourself in a manner that will bring honor to you and your family as well as to 4-H.

To do that you will need to:

1. Attend as many sessions as possible.
2. Follow safety rules, range and etiquette rules. Follow hours, rules etc. You are responsible to know the rules.
3. Use good judgement in selecting clothing appropriate to the occasion and weather.
4. Use language and manners that will bring respect to you and Brown County 4-H.
5. Be in the assigned program area at all times. Horseplay or similar socializing inside/outside is prohibited.
6. Follow the counties 4-H driving policy in regard to events and activities.
7. Know that the use of alcohol, tobacco, and non-prescribed drugs is illegal and prohibited at all events. Inform adult leader of use of prescription medication.
8. Show courtesy and respect for all other people. Demonstrate good sportsmanship.
9. Treat program areas, lodging areas and vehicles with respect and care. You will be responsible for any damage, theft, or misconduct in which you participate.
10. Help other members in your group have a pleasant experience by making every attempt to include all participants in activities.
11. Live up to your highest expectations for yourself so you can return home proud of who you are and what you have done.
12. Abide by the Brown County 4-H Code of Conduct.

Those unable to conduct themselves within the guidelines listed above may expect:

1. To explain their actions to the adults in charge.
2. To accept consequences of their actions
3. To have adults in charge work closely with parents/guardians, Extension personnel and others to see those actions taken, in case of unacceptable behavior, are appropriate and logical consequences for all concerned.
4. May be required to meet with the appropriate 4-H Volunteers or Extension personnel as per the behavior guidelines.

I have read and understand the Brown County Shooting Sports Code of Conduct and agree to live up to the expectations. I realize my failure to do so could result in a loss of privileges related to the 4-H Shooting Sports Program, the Ohio 4-H program now and/or in the future.
